

House Resolution No. 933

Whereas, the Missouri House of Representatives occasionally pauses in its diverse legislative endeavors in order to acknowledge milestone attainments by Show-Me State residents who are dedicated to maintaining and improving examples of areas and regions which illustrate life in the past for the benefit of current and future generations; and

Whereas, Howard Marshall has attained distinction as Professor Emeritus of Art History and Archaeology at the University of Missouri-Columbia; and

Whereas, Howard Marshall recently enhanced his already impressive record of achievement when he authored Barns of Missouri: Storehouses of History; and

Whereas, born and raised in the rural heart of Missouri, Howard Marshall completed undergraduate studies at the University of Missouri prior to pursuing a Doctor of Philosophy degree in folklore from Indiana University; and

Whereas, in addition to his teaching endeavors in vernacular architecture, traditional arts, and historic preservation at the University of Missouri, Howard Marshall has served as Director of the Missouri Cultural Heritage Center and Chairman of the Department of Art History and Archaeology; and

Whereas, serving as a focus in the fight against abandoning and destroying an area's historical, social, and educational significance, Howard Marshall received the prestigious Osmund Overby Award from Missouri Preservation (the Missouri Alliance for Historic Preservation) at a special awards ceremony held in the State Capitol Rotunda on Wednesday, February 23, 2005:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the significant labors and tremendous success embodied in the work of Howard Marshall and to convey to him this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and best wishes upon his receipt of the well-deserved Missouri Preservation Osmund Overby Award; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Howard Marshall.
